D.C., Q.C The Honourable John C. Crosbie, P.C.,

TEL: 709-570-5501 Public-Private Partnerships

Jcrosbie@pattersonpalmer.ca FAX: 709-722-0483

Government and trade matters in particular. and provides strategic advice with respect to Palmer. He is involved with the commercial group John is counsel to the St. John's office of Patterson

LL.B. (Dalhousle University, 1956) Qualifications

ssaujsng

8.A Honours (Queen's University, 1953)

Bat Admission; Newfoundland and Labrador, 1957; Ontario 1985

In 2004 Mr. Crosbie was elected as Chairmen of the Board to Global Empire Professional Experience development and telecommunications sectors. of subsidiary companies within the energy, real estate investment, construction & Investments & Holdings, LLC, a US based corporation with holdings in a number

Sistes, Canada and Mexico under the NAFTA Agreement. Commerce set up for mediation of disputes between residents of the United A Director of the International Mediation Centre of the Greater Dallas Chamber of anottailiftA bns astivitaA Isnoizzator9 issues as well as issues involving economic development in Allantic Canada. as a Minister in financial, international trade, justice, transport and fisheries reference to commercial, constitutional and trade issues. Extensive experience Counsel to a number of commercial companies and government clients with

Newfoundland, Bell Canada International and a number of other Canadian and A Director of the Atlantic Institute of Market Studies and Insurance Corporation of

Chancellor of Memorial University of Newfoundland Newfoundland commercial companies

Appointed an Officer of the Order of Canada 1998 Honorary Consul for Mexico in Newfoundiand and Labrador

1979-1980 and 1984-1993 including Minister of Justice and Attorney General of Labrador 1966-1976 and in the Government of Canada as Minister of Finance Formerly a Minister in various portiolios in the Government of Newfoundland and

1991 , rS lingA of 8891 , rE rionsM moni abon T Canada from September 17, 1984 to June 30, 1986 and Minister of International

HPR-26-2005(IUE) II: 16

P. 001/011